Privacy Policy

Rotary Club of Carlingford Inc is committed to providing quality services to you and this policy outlines our ongoing obligations to you in respect of how we manage your Personal Information. We have adopted the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988 which governs the way in which we collect, use, disclose, store, secure and dispose of your Personal Information. The Principles may be obtained from the website of The Office of the Australian Information Commissioner at www.aaic.gov.au

What is Personal Information and why do we collect it?

Personal Information is that which identifies an individual, such as on this inquiry form or by way of further correspondence or interview or discussion or engagement in support of a project. We collect your Personal Information for the purpose of providing our services to you. You may unsubscribe from our mailing at any time on request.

Sensitive information as defined in the Privacy Act will not be collected at any time.

Third Parties

We do not accept information from third parties or pass on information to third parties.

Security of Personal Information

Your Personal Information is stored in a manner that reasonably protects it from misuse and loss and from unauthorized access, modification or disclosure. When your Personal Information is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was obtained, we will take reasonable steps to destroy or permanently de-identify your Personal Information.

Policy Updates

This Policy may change from time to time and is available on our website.
